What are the different types of greenhouse kits?

Greenhouse kits come in classic and modern designs to add style to your landscape as they provide quality grow space. Low tunnels are perfect for protecting a specific crop in a garden bed, while high tunnels and hoop houses allow more comprehensive planting.

How do you choose a greenhouse & hoop house?

Low tunnels are perfect for protecting a specific crop in a garden bed, while high tunnels and hoop houses allow more comprehensive planting. If you are a professional gardener, look at commercial greenhouses and retail greenhouses that are designed from the ground up for maximum efficiency. Plant structures aren't just for cooler weather, either.
