

Croatia's energy sector is governed by EU-aligned legislation, as a member of the European Union since 2013. The sector is regulated through national laws and by transposing EU ...

The Croatian Energy Regulatory Agency (HERA) has been founded according to the Act on the Regulation of Energy Activities (Official Gazette, No. 177/04 and 76/07) and has continued to operate ...

Are you looking for information on electricity law and regulation in Croatia? This CMS Expert Guide provides you with everything you need to know.

Croatian Energy Regulatory Agency (HERA) is an autonomous, independent and non-profit public institution which regulates energy activities in the Republic of Croatia.

Croatian law regulates six electricity activities: generation, transmission, distribution, supply, retail and electricity market organisation. Traditionally, all activities were performed...

Define requirements such as registration with HERA (Croatian Energy Regulatory Agency), mandatory management structure and specific statutes/regulations Law on Renewable Energy Sources and ...

A new regulatory framework introduced by the New Electricity Market Act in the second half of 2021 aims to increase the share of renewable energy in total energy production and facilitate ...

Act on the Regulation of Energy Activities ("Official Gazette", No. 120/12, 68/18); Energy Act ("Official Gazette", No. 120/12, 14/14, 102/15, 68/18); Act on the Electricity Market ("Official Gazette", No. ...

Joint support schemes for renewable electricity The Republic of Croatia may voluntarily decide to pool or partially harmonize its national support programs with other EU Member States.

Electricity regulations croatia

Web: <https://www.upstreamjhb.co.za>

