

Argentina's largest province has approved its first regulatory framework for collective renewable energy projects, allowing multiple users to share self-consumption and monetise surplus power injected into ...

The Ministry of Infrastructure and Public Services of Buenos Aires Province just approved the Community Distributed Generation Regulation, opening the door to a more accessible and collaborative ...

Argentina has unbeatable natural and technical conditions to continue expanding the production of wind and hydroelectric power, as well as a great potential to develop second and third generation biofuels, solar, tidal ...

The Argentina Energy Summit & Exhibition will host Argentina's Heads of energy and will match them with interested partners, whilst presenting bankable opportunities immediately available to renewable energy ...

Argentina is set to host its inaugural Energy Week from November 18-23, 2024, in the vibrant city of Buenos Aires and the picturesque Mendoza region. This landmark event will highlight the nation's vast ...

On Thursday, July 17, the province of Buenos Aires will open the doors of its first Renewable Energy Center, located at the Technological Campus of the Commission of Scientific Research (CIC) in La ...

President Alberto Fernández and European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen have signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) on energy co-operation that seeks to boost energy trade ...

Faced with the urgent challenge of climate change, Argentina needs to transform its energy matrix to use renewable sources. The energy transition (ET), focused on adopting clean energy, could open ...

As set out in the MoU, the EU and Argentina will work together to develop and promote renewable energy and energy efficiency, as well as the use of hydrogen and its derivatives in applications, such as industrial ...

Europe renewable energy buenos aires

Web: <https://www.upstreamjhb.co.za>

