

Personal solar power grid connection scam

Watch out for these red flags that may indicate a scam. You are threatened with immediate service shutoff without any prior notice. You receive a request for payment when you are current on your ...

These scams start with an unexpected phone call, message on social, or even an in-person visit. The so-called official offers you an "energy audit" to reduce your utility costs. Or they might try to sign you ...

Someone claiming to work for your utility company comes to your door after a power outage and says you need to pay a fee immediately to restore your electricity service. A solar power ...

Many homeowners never get any solar equipment installed; those who do often get shoddy work. The criminals are leaving unsuspecting homeowners with massive debt; many victims ...

As solar grows in popularity, more scammers are targeting consumers. Here are three common solar scams to look out for, how to avoid them and how to report solar scams.

Scams are unfortunately common in the solar industry. Learn more about some of the most likely scams you may face when trying to go solar.

If you've been approached by someone offering to install solar panels at no cost or promising you'll never have to pay another electricity bill, be careful--it's likely a scam."

No information about the cost to remove or transfer solar panels, which could lead you to believe you have future options that might not be available or affordable

Everything you need to know to avoid a solar panel scam and what to do if you feel you've been a victim of predatory solar companies.

If your solar installation is not properly permitted, you may face fines, penalties, or even forced system removal. These legal battles can be time-consuming, costly, and highly stressful, making your solar ...

Personal solar power grid connection scam

Web: <https://www.upstreamjhb.co.za>

